Dear Neighbors and Friends of Sunol,

We are ready to embark on the 28th season of SUNOL REPERTORY THEATRE. As in the past, a melodrama will be presented that will give you plenty of opportunity to gasp for the poor heroine, hiss and boo the villain and generally give voice to ahhs and cheers as the enthusiastic audiences we've all enjoyed in the past. Our melodrama takes place in Chicago in 1871 and is titled A MILLION DOLLAR BABY or A HOT TIME IN THE OLDE TOWNE TONIGHT by Craig Sodaro, adapted by Klay Kunkel and will be directed by Kari Davis and Klay Kunkel.

As in past seasons the profits from our performances will benefit Sunol Glen School. With your generous help, SRT has donated nearly $100,000 to the school over the years providing upgrades and equipment for the auditorium's audio/visual systems, new folding chairs, resurfacing of the hardwood floor as well as funding the school's drama elective program and other Fine Arts endeavors. All cast and crew are VOLUNTEERS doing it because we love it, you love it and the school's students love the extra benefits SRT's donations provide. None of this would be possible without you – our patrons and ticket buyers

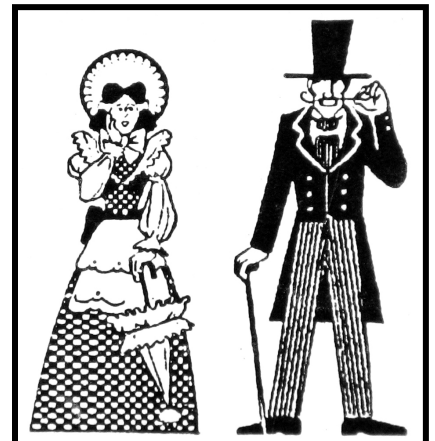

Each year your financial support and audience participation make the show and our donation to Sunol Glen a reality. Please join us in another great SRT season and select from one of the giving categories listed below. In addition to supporting community theatre and local educational programs, you will receive terrific seats for an evening of memorable melodrama and fun.
